ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Goat Exercised His Ingenuity.

Maybe there are some Anderson people so unsophisticated as to believe that a goat, the common, ordinary, field garden variety of scrub goat, is incapable of entertaining any coherent thought. If so, then ponder again. Yesterday there was a negro hard at work at one of the lumber mills in Anderson when a gay and festive "billy" wandered by, and the negro thinking to have some fun, playfully tapped the goat in the head with a hammer. At that time "billy" didn't show any resentment but he watched his chance and presently crawled up on top of a lumber pile nearby until he was several feet above the negro's head and then without warning a pair of horns and four well-planted feet struck the negro in the head. That Son of Ham was about as badly frightened as any negro ever was and he was actually knocked unconscious and staid in that condition for several minutes. It is hardly probable that he will ever again bother a goat as long as the goat leaves him alone.

Ministerial Union Has Re-Organized.

Anderson's Ministerial Union was reorganized yesterday at a meeting held in the Anderson Y. M. C. A. Plans were discussed for the work to be done during the coming winter and it was decided to hold the weekly meetings, every Monday morning during the coming winter as was the custom last winter. The election of officers yesterday resulted in the choice of the following to serve for the next 12 months: Rev. J. M. Harrison of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, president; Rev. J. T. Black of the Christian church, Vice-President and Rev. W. T. Belvin of the Baptist church at Orr Mill, secretary. The Union contemplates putting several endeavors underway within the next few weeks and believes that the coming winter will see much good work done in Anderson.

Kress People Are Completing Plans.

A representative of the S. H. Kress Company was in Anderson yesterday, coming here for the purpose of putting the finishing touches on the preparations for opening this handsome new store within the next few days. The gentleman here yesterday engaged a number of salesmen and salesladies and he has practically everything ready for the store to do its first day's business. All of the fixtures have been installed in the new building and it is easily one of the handsomest stores in this part of the State.

Made Changes In Football Games.

The manager of the Anderson high school football team announced yesterday that he had made a change in the games which the local team will play and instead of beginning the season on Saturday with a game between A. H. S. and the Clemson freshmen will come at a later date. Members of the local team say that they are confident of winning the game Monday, since their team is considerably heavier and more experienced than is that of the Spartanburg boys. The game will take place at Beuna Vista park and play will begin promptly at 3 o'clock.

Change Made To Heavy Clothing.

The damp and dreary weather of the last few days has been responsible for heavier clothing making the appearance on the streets of Anderson. Woollens have come out of closets, old shoes have been hunted up and the overalls have almost been discarded. It is now hardly a strange thing to wake up in the middle of the night with a moth ball in an eye or an ear as the result of blankets having been removed from the winter's sleep in a chest.

Uncle Dave Made A Splendid Talk.

Yesterday was a splendid day for October but there were only two public sales conducted on the square. Col. Dave Taylor of Sandy Springs acted as auctioneer for the property and when he concluded the sale he delivered a short address to the large crowd assembled. Uncle Dave's talk was one of the best the people of Anderson have ever heard and he was generously complimented on it when he concluded. He talked of various things, discussing the issues of the day and he made a hit with his audience.

City Council To Convene Tonight.

This being the first Tuesday in the month and the regular date for the city council to meet, that body will convene at 7 o'clock in the evening in the council chambers at the city hall. It is understood that only one or two matters out of the ordinary are to come up and it is probable that the session tonight will be brief.

County Board To Meet Today.

The regular monthly meeting of the Anderson county commissioners will be held today. The meeting is to be held in the office of the county auditor and the business to be transacted will be entirely routine. For the most part it will consist of matters of routine and reporting bills against the county.

Arrested When He Visited Magistrate.

In all probability some many moons will elapse before Will Myers, a young white man, pays another visit to a Magistrate's office in Anderson. Yesterday Myers appeared in Magistrate Broadwell's office and told that official that he desired a warrant for the arrest of a man who had disturbed the peace of his home on Liberty Hill. When Myers gave his name, Magistrate Broadwell turned to the records and found that one Will Myers was wanted by the Anderson authorities for beating his board bill when the sad Myers was boarding at the home of a Mr. Smith on E street and therefore the would-be prosecutor was thrown into jail and will be tried today. The trouble which took place at Liberty Hill occurred on both Saturday and Sunday night, during which the officers secured one man, who is said to have been dead drunk, but the two women who are said to have instigated the trouble made a getaway. Officers are now searching for them and they will probably be apprehended.

Due West Students Were Here Yesterday.

Several students from the College for Women at Due West came to Anderson yesterday and spent the day in the interests of the college magazine. The young ladies stated that the college has opened this year under very auspicious circumstances and that both faculty and students body expect this to be a splendid year. They say that their magazine this year will be "bigger and better" than ever was before and they seemed to be very appreciative of the assistance given them by Anderson's business men.

Greenville Man To Preach Here.

Members of Shiloh church have announced that Rev. J. L. Yuss of Greenville will occupy the pulpit of that church on the third Sunday in October and they have issued a cordial invitation to the public to be present and to participate in the services. Mr. Yuss is a speaker of rare ability and he will doubtless give his audience here much to think about. The service is to be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

New Salesman For Music House.

For Music House, 101 N. 2nd St., H. C. Smith, who has been connected with the C. A. Reed music house for the past 10 years, has been transferred to that position and has gone to work for White & Spearman. Mr. Smith is well acquainted with the music trade in and around Anderson and he will prove very valuable to his new employers. He has already assumed his new duties.

Delayed Journey Began Yesterday.

Several days ago W. W. Powell of the Anderson Chero-Cola Company announced that he was starting for an extended tour of the State, on account of the hard rains of the last few days he had to postpone the journey. Mr. Powell left yesterday, carrying with him a negro cook, a communications tent and several good rifles. He plans to camp along the way and to do considerable shooting and on the whole to make a big pleasure trip out of the tour. He will go from Anderson to New Orleans and on to Beaumont, Texas.

Police Set A New Record Here.

Saturday was certainly an exceptional day for Anderson. Ordinarily there are from 10 to 20 arrests made during the course of a week and here but the last Saturday passed with only one arrest made and that was on a charge of being drunk. The officer making the arrest said he hated so bad to shake the line day's record that he tried to get that one defendant to go home so that he would not be arrested, but the inebriated one refused.

"A Self Starter" from the Florsheim Line

Talk About "Pep"

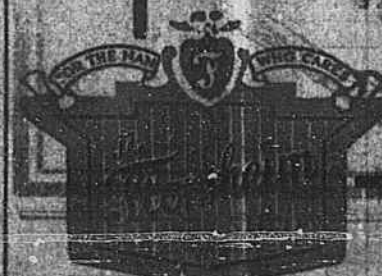

this new Florsheim Premier has more "get-up-and-go" than any new style we've displayed—you can't help like it the minute you see it—it's modeled along different lines from the ordinary English shoe. For the man who omits buttoning the bottom vest button and does not care to lace his shoes to the top, the top eyelet is omitted—the new "Ray" effect is both practical and strikingly clever. The cut does not do justice to the shoe—you ought to see it—you are ready to show you.

The Store For the Man Who Cares

We admit that the war has temporarily depressed the price of cotton but we believe the South is great enough to stand the loss.

AND FURTHER—

is resourceful enough to quickly readjust to meet the needs of a new condition that may arise.

THEREFORE—

We are confident that North Anderson as well as all of Anderson will continue to go forward.

used to take the same notice and stockholders held no was threatened thrown into beginning to move the cotton. More cotton was brought to Anderson yesterday than on any day this year. The market price was 7.13 cents and very little of the heavy staple was sold, most of it being placed in the warehouse while some was shipped out to merchants around town for 10 cents per pound to the hard warehouse. The cotton receipts for the present season are 100,000 bales against 100,000 bales last year.
